We are blessed in Alaska. The majestic beauty of our seas, rivers, mountains, tundra and forests declares we are blessed. The incomparable variety of wildlife that puts awe in our hearts and meat on our tables declares we are blessed. The richest bounty of fish and sea life in our oceans, rivers and streams declares we are blessed. The abundant natural resources of our land declare we are blessed.

The culturally rich, diverse, creative and resilient people of Alaska declare we are blessed. We are blessed to live in this land and to raise our children and grandchildren here. We are blessed to live in such a superior place where we can enjoy life to its fullest. We are blessed to live where we feel such a unity and closeness to each other because we are Alaskans.

Where else on earth can a person go and be so blessed? It is apparent that You have abundantly poured out Your great gifts on us. We just want to say, "Thank You, Lord, for all of Your blessings!"
Amen.
